The wounded henchman shouts as you casually step over the body of his deceased comrade. “Loyalist dog! You’re already dead and just don’t know it!”

Despite his bold words, when you look closer you can see him shaking. A simple nudge might be enough to turn him into a full-fledged informant.

- I inform the guard we are the scouts for a GloPac strike team.
- I administer a garden-variety beating.
- I help him to realize how unimportant he is.
- I casually point out that if the guard does not help me, I will cut off his face and eat it.

About This Game

It's always a bit stressful on graduation day. The uncertainty of the future, the excitement of endless possibilities, and of course getting blown out of the sky by a weapon that should no longer exist. Welcome to Earth in the 24th century.

Nuclear Powered Toaster is a 160,000 word interactive sci-fi novel by Matt Simpson, where your choices control the story. It's entirely text-based—without graphics or sound effects—and fueled by the vast, unstoppable power of your imagination.

Humanity is a pale shadow of its former glory after two nuclear wars and living under the constant threat of orbital attack. You...won't really be able to change any of that, but if you play your cards right, you might just live to see another sunrise, and possibly even unravel a sinister plan!

- Play as smuggler Alexi Beaumont, or superpowered government agent Fiorella Branford for two distinct experiences.
- Meet new and interesting people on Duck Mountain, and try not to be incinerated by them!
- Team up with a henchman, an actor, or the solar system's oddest janitor.

- Uncover a global conspiracy and bring down a mysterious terrorist...if you can.
 - Resolve situations with wits, force, or just harness the erratic power of pure insanity.
 - Endeavor to keep on good terms with your comrades, or risk turning an ally into an enemy!

Comedy, action, and a pinch of absurdity await those who board the Nuclear Powered Toaster!

There are distant sounds of chatter and movement, but for now the hallways seem to be empty. Off in the distance a horrible clanking cacophony can be heard. The lift to the surface is on this floor, but escape is not your only priority.

Alexi looks at you. "Okay then, Spikes. What should we focus on first?"

- "Let's get those parts to repair the Nuclear Powered Toaster. A good escape definitely has some assembly required."
- "We've got to learn more about this planned offensive and how to stop it."
- "How about we locate that pesky missile platform and take it out?"
- "That big EXIT sign is looking mighty tempting. We're outta here!"

The craft was virtually annihilated by the direct hit, and only the shielded nature of the cockpit saved you from a similar fate. Your time is running out, but you might have a chance to grab a single item from the rucksack behind you before ejecting. What do you reach for as you plummet?

- My sidearm!
- My utility jacket!
- My Palmcomm!
- Mantra-fueling rations!
- My rubber ducky!
- Choose? Nuts to that, I'm taking the whole bag!
- I choose not to risk it and punch out empty-handed.

Humor and characters are pretty good. I especially like the achievements! It was a great price for the length and replayability, too.. Humor and characters are pretty good.
